The leader of this group was Pi50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM No-wa (彼 德勒可克)· 5. Construction at Mahsiang (118-14, 24-40) Airfield was begun The Fukien government recruited 20,000 and was completed the dimensions of the field laborers for this project. were 5,000 x 3,000 meters and two runways were completed; one was 1,200 meters long and 120 meters wide and was built of reinforced concrete, and the other was 800 meters long and 80 meters wide an was constructed with a "cemented surface". It is exclusively a military airfield, but no planes are using it. 50X1-HUM the following planes were at Canton airfields: 6. 50X1-HUM Tilenho: 3 MIG-9's, 5 Soviet transports, 2 MIG-15's, and 17 other planes. b. White Cloud: 4 FT-16's, 3 MIG-15's,2 YAK-21 je fighters, 3 Soviet transports, and 15 other planes which were being repaired. 50X1-HUM the North River Military Distric', Ewangtung, received 7. orders from the Military Control Commission at Canton to widen and lengthen the runway at Ch'uchiang (113-33, 24-50) Airfield. The field was to be a.d. 500 laborers were 50X1-HUM enlarged and ready for use recruited for the work. Storage facilities, sufficient to hold 5,000 tark of gasoline and other materials, were being built it the south end of the 50X1-HUM field. This is to be a reserve airfield for the second line of defense. 50X1-HUM 8.

the Canton Air Force Supply Depot, leaded by CHUNG Chih-ping received an order from LIU Ya-lou () I to establis 50X1-HUM a parachute factory which would supply a Hainan aviation school with 50X1-HUM parachutes made of Canton silk. The remainder of lanton's parachute production was to supply other training schools ir China.

CHUNG Chih-ping decided to use the old Chunho (%) Factory, in the Honan Suburb, for this purpose, and he designated a group of buyers to procure silk at Taliang (113-16, 22-49), Shunte (113-16, 2-50), and ther places. The training school to be supplied is at Yulin (19-34, 18-13), where a class of 43 paratroope is being trained.

g. the Air Defense Command of the Central and South China Military Area sent representatives, accommended by two Soutet advisers, to inspect Chinchiang (109-37, 27-27) Airfield, after which the inspection party returned to Hankow, drafted a plan for the record tioning of the field, and submitted it to higher authorities for consideration. Some of the measures planned by the Air Defense Command are as follows:

- a. To have the Central and South China Military at Political Committee order the provincial capital of Hunan and the provincial Military District Headquarters to move to Chinchiang to strengthen the security of that area.
- b. To negotiate with the Hunan Provincial Government concerning detailed plans for the recruiting of civilian labor.
- c. To expand the organization at Chihchiang Airfield and send 14 air service personnel to make preliminary on-the-spot preparations.
